

A Thanksgiving Day

By: Liam

Thanksgiving Day is a huge tradition in the states. It all started when the pilgrims came to North America from England. They settled here during the harsh winters . Then a Native American came to offer peace and his name was Squanto [leader of the tribe]. They shared gifts with each other and then the pilgrims invited them for a thanksgiving meal.

A tradition in m family is that we eat thanksgiving dinner and then we play games together and have a fun time as a family. On thanksgiving We usually eat a Turkey, some stuffing, cranberry sauce and mashed potatoes. That is a Thanksgiving Day.
