Introduction:

Industrial Revolution began in Britain in the 18th century.

The most immediate changes were in the nature of production.

Goods that had traditionally been made in the home or in small workshops manufactured in the factory began to be

Goods that had traditionally been made in the home or in small workshops manufactured in the factory.

The Industrial Revolution led to the growth of cities as people moved from rural areas into urban communities in search of work.

Changes in Society

The Industrial Revolution had a major impact on the nature of work in society.

It significantly changed the daily lives of ordinary men, women and children living in the industrialized areas.

British engineer Richard Trevithick pioneered the use of steam power for locomotion in the 1790s and 1800s.
